Data Practices Advisory: Under the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act, some of the information you are asked to provide (i.e. your address, telephone number, party affiliation, and email address) is private. You are being asked to provide that information in order to facilitate assignments, schedules, and for payroll and election staff use. Private information will be shared only with personnel whose job responsibilities require access to the information. You can choose not to provide some or all of the private information, but doing so may limit your ability to serve as an election judge.
