Osseo City Council Work Session Item

Agenda Item: Community Center Policy Review

Meeting Date: June 27, 2022

Prepared by: Joe Amerman, Community Management Coordinator

Attachments: Osseo Community Center Rental Policy
Chisago Beer Permit

Policy Consideration:

Review and discuss proposed revisions to the Osseo Community Room Rental Policy.

Background:

At its May 23, 2022, meeting, the Council heard an agenda item proposing to revise the city's Community Center Rental Policy, particularly in regard to the way alcohol caterers are or aren't allowed to operate in the Community Center. At that time the Council's decision was to schedule a larger discussion of the Community Center Policy for a future work session.

In the meantime, city staff including Administrator Grams, Coordinator Amerman, Assistant Broden, and Coordinator Schneider met to discuss what portions of the Community Center policy were in need of being updated, and what could be done to improve them. Based on that discussion the following five recommendations are being proposed.

1. Increased Rental Rates:

*not including the $250 deposit	Current Rates	Proposed Rates
Residents, Osseo Businesses, and Osseo Based Non-Profits	$30 for a half-day rental of either Room A or Room B. (Weekdays only)	$50
*a 'half-day' being 4 hours on weekdays and 6 hours on weekends.	$90 per one half-day rental of both Room A and B.	$100
Non-Residents, Other Businesses, Other nonprofits:	$75 for a half-day rental of either Room A or Room B. (Weekdays only)	$100
	$200 for one half-day rental of both Room A and B.	$250

The city has been aware for some time, based on conversations with renters, that the Community Center is considered a very affordable option. A recent survey of similar facilities in other cities has shown us that this is potentially understanding just how affordable. Maple Grove's Community Center Banquet Room, for example, charges residents a flat fee of $450 for weekday rentals and $850 on the weekends. This is not including the required damage deposit of $400, and they additionally require 6-month advance notice of cancellation. For non-residents, these rates increase to $500 and $900, respectively. Rogers requires an hourly fee of $80 for residents and $100 for non-residents. This means that over a 6-hour period (which is what Osseo considers a half-day) fees are $420 and $600 before including a damage deposit. Medina charges $190 for residents and $450 for non-residents, and also has escalating damage deposits of up to $500. All three of these cities charge significant extra fees if the rental includes catering.

Based on these numbers Osseo charges somewhere between 25-50% of what neighboring communities do for very similar facilities. The city staff is proposing a modest increase in rental fees, though raising the rates even further would be considered reasonable.

2. Formalize Cleanup Charges:

The current rental policy calls for a damage deposit of $250, which is then returned after the event, minus whatever city expenses were necessary to clean the facility. However, the precise amount deducted from the deposit is determined by an estimate of the Senior Activities Coordinator Ann Schneider, who the city has arranged to clean the space. The issue is that this estimate could be considered subjective and, out of a desire to avoid disputes, often leans towards being overly generous towards the renter. To solve that, staff is proposing a tiered deposit return structure based on the time it took Coordinator Schneider to clean the space:

- $50 per hour for the first two hours
- $70 per hour for hours three and four
- $90 per hour for every hour beyond hour four.

This would total:

For 1 hour:	For 2 hours:	For 3 hours:	for 4 hours:	for 5 hours:
$50	$100	$170	$240	$330

This structure would remove the possibility or perception of subjectivity from the deposit return process. As a note, staff would round up to the nearest hour.

3. Holding a Credit Card on File

There is no current proposal to raise the deposit amount; staff wants to make sure the registration fees don't drive away responsible renters simply by making the initial price tag unaffordable. However, if the deposit return formula detailed above is adopted, anything that requires more than 4 hours of cleanup would exceed the deposit. To avoid requiring staff to function as collections agents, asking renters to return and pay additional costs, staff is proposing that renters provide documentation of a credit card for staff to keep on file until the cleanup costs have been determined. This card would then be charged the difference if cleanup costs are greater than the initial deposit. This is a very common practice among all kinds of rental businesses. As with all credit card information the city receives, this information would be destroyed when no longer needed.

4. Increased Pay for Clean-Up

The city currently pays Ann Schneider $60 per weekend for cleaning the Community Center, regardless of the amount of work actually required. While occasionally this does mean Coordinator Schneider is paid $60 for a weekend when little clean-up is needed, it much more frequently means underpayment. Schneider is often required to come in at late hours, often 10 pm or later on the weekends, if there are events the next morning. Schneider has often spent 5-6 hours in a single weekend cleaning the walls, tables, floors, and windows of the Community Center. This is not idle or easy work. Of course, when her $60 payment is spread across the hours of work Coordinator Schneider is sometimes making less than minimum wage. Staff is proposing an increase to $80 per week. This would result in a direct budget increase of $1,040 to the General Fund.

5. Temporary Alcohol Catering Permits

Finally, staff is proposing that the city adopt something similar to the attached Beer Permit, which would allow residents to bring their preferred alcohol caterer into the Community Center to serve alcohol. This permit application would require Caterer's to show proof of insurance and alcohol licensing, an acknowledgement of their responsibility to clean up afterwards, and a fee. Of course, any other information the city decides is necessary would be required as well. This would allow renters to find the caterer that best fits the needs of their event. This would also require a slight modification of the Community Center regulation requiring residents to pick a caterer off of the Approved Caterers List. Staff is proposing a fee of $50 for the beer permit. Alcohol Caterers would still have to follow all of the other regulations pertaining to alcohol in the Community Center, which includes hiring a police officer to supervise any event with more than 50 attendees where alcohol is served.

Recommendation/Action Requested:

As this is a work session, staff is asking that the Council discuss the proposal and direct staff accordingly.

Next Step:

Based on direction from this meeting, staff can bring forward a list of revisions for approval at a future Council meeting.

(The Council Chambers and Fire and Police Department Meeting Rooms are generally not available for use for public gatherings and are made available only upon special consent of the City Administrator and/or the Fire/Police Chief.) The following guidelines are official City Policy designed to promote orderly and appropriate use of these public facilities.

The Council shall also adopt a fee schedule for the rental of the Community Center. Agenda Item: 2023-Street Improvement Project- Sidewalk Discussion

Meeting Date: June 27, 2022

Prepared By: Alyson Fauske, PE, City Engineer

Attachments: 2023-Street Reconstruction Project Sidewalk Map
Existing and Proposed Bicycle and Pedestrian Facilities Map (Figure 5-7 of the 2040 Comprehensive Plan)

---

Policy Consideration:

Should the installation of sidewalks be considered for the 2023 Street Improvement Project?

Background:

The 2023 street reconstruction project includes the reconstruction of several streets on the east side of the city: 8th and 9th Avenues NE, Broadway Street NE, and 3rd Street NE. As work on the preliminary plans begins, City Council direction regarding the installation of sidewalks is requested. Maps are enclosed to provide the Council a representation of the 2023 project area and the city's sidewalk network as of 2018 (additional sidewalks were added with the 2020 project).

The right of way widths in the project corridor are between 60' and 66', which are as wide or wider than the right of way widths in the 2020 project where sidewalks were installed. From a preliminary design standpoint, placement of sidewalk in the 2023 project would look similar to the 2020 project.

Recommendation/Action Requested:

Staff recommends that the City Council discuss this item and direct staff accordingly.
